CHALLENGE DESCRIPTION

Partnership, vision and diversity made DELTA the successful international group of companies with several locations in Austria, the Czech Republic, Slovakia and the Ukraine that it is today. DELTA has already completed numerous successful construction and real estate projects in the areas of industry & office, trade & entertainment, culture & education, residential construction, healthcare, hotel & wellness and infrastructure.

We are a holistic service provider in building construction, a leading Austrian as well as Central and Eastern European company, international expert, creative building thinker and the right partner to give space to innovative ideas.

Category:

As part of inno up, Delta Holding is looking for innovative startups with solutions, services or technologies (or parts for a total solution) from the PropTech area with a special focus on Building Information Modeling BIM (especially evaluation of point clouds, creation of 3D models, automated Information from construction site in BIM tool) as well as sensors for pollutants in buildings and air quality.

The ultimate special case consists in mapping existing buildings (“brown field”) with regard to the materials they contain. This could happen by automated using sensors, scans, existing databases and other methods (also point clouds, etc.). The aim is to interpret the condition of the building from the data obtained, to determine pollutants and valuable substances (!)

And to create a digital twin or to provide input for it.

Eligibility criteria:

To take part in the Delta Holding challenge, your startup should meet the following criteria:

- Cross-functional way of thinking and trading, beyond the real estate and construction industries
- A balanced team of “techies”, “lateral thinkers” and visionaries
- Think “quick win” and don't be afraid of failure
- A train to the gate
- Working language German and English

Offer to the winning team:

Delta Holding offers the winner:

- Open doors for possible further cooperation up to co-founding
- Direct assignments
- Access to the DELTA network - for example:
 - the Department of Disruptive Disciplines in the Grand Garage of the Tabakfabrik Linz
 - Networking with other start-ups within DELTA's
 - Insight into research and development of ongoing projects
- Lots of concrete case studies to test and try out
- Cooperation with a young and international DELTA team beyond Austria
- Agile environment in cool locations in Vienna, Linz, Kiev etc.

Legal Disclaimer:

All natural and legal persons of legal age are eligible to participate, provided they meet the above-mentioned criteria for participation. Employees of Delta Holding and their relatives as well as public officials are excluded from participation.

Delta Holding defines a task (challenge), on the basis of which innovative startups register on an online platform via the project website www.inno-up.at. This platform is used to pre-select eligible participants, which are then presented to the buddy company. Then the most suitable three (up to a maximum of five) startups for the final (pitch day) are selected by Delta Holding with the involvement of the coaches; the finalists will be notified via email. In a final step, the ideas are finalized and presented. One or more winners can be chosen from the finalists. There is no legal entitlement to the conclusion of contracts or other business relationships between the participants / winners and Delta Holding. There is also no legal right to a final and / or the determination of a winner. The participants do not receive any allowance for their participation.

The conditions of participation, parts of the process or the entire process can be changed at any time. The changes will be announced in good time and published on the platform www.inno-up.at.

It is possible and participants expressly acknowledge that the research, development and other activities of the participants and Delta Holding thematically overlap. The participants do not have any claims from this. The participant registration is considered as express consent to this disclaimer.
